IN THE SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE

IN RE: DELAWARE RULES FOR § CONTINUING EDUCATION §

ORDER

This 7th day of October, 2021, it appears to the Supreme Court of Delaware that:

WHEREAS, Continuing Legal Education Rule 4 provides that at least 12 of the required 24 CLE credit hours that shall be completed during each two-year period must be earned by attending in person, live CLE approved courses; and

WHEREAS, by order dated April 6, 2020 this Court waived the requirement that live, in-person CLE approved courses make up at least 12 of the required 24 CLE credit hours for the two-year periods ending December 31, 2020 and December 31, 2021 because of the unavailability of such courses due to the COVID-19 crisis; and

WHEREAS, it appears that the availability of live, in-person CLE approved courses continues to be extremely limited due to COVID-19;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. The requirement that at least 12 of the 24 CLE credit hours must be earned by attending in person, live CLE approved courses is waived for the two-year period ending December 31, 2022. All 24 CLE credit hours for that two-year period may be satisfied by approved courses that do not require an in-person, live appearance.

BY THE COURT:

/s/ Collins J. Seitz, Jr.
Chief Justice
